Dr. Tom Bradford
7520 16th Avenue, South
Richfield, Minnesota

Dear Tom:

Just today I have run across your address and have been reminded thereby of our pleasant associations in North Bay. It was a real pleasure to become acquainted with you and to be inspired by your willingness to spend some time in that mission area.

Reports continue to sound highly favorable of the work in North Bay. We can all feel good about the way God used the efforts of all the workers in that campaign. This letter does not need a reply. I just wanted to write and let you know that I remain grateful for the time that we worked together.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
